

Photos by Sisters Carleen Cekal and Immaculata N. Nwachukwu, SSND; and our Vietnamese visitor Seminary Student Sister Huyen. We were delighted to be joined by our Nigerian Sister/NDMU students Eti-ini, Grace and Immaculata N. Nwachukwu; our Vietnamese visitor seminary student Sister Huyen; and our VA Sisters Pat Shea, Carleen Cekal, Rita Dorn, and Pat Glinka.

Our Nigerian Sisters NDMU students Immaculata, Eti-ini, Grace, and our Vietnamese Seminary student Sister Huyen

Immaculata trying to get the baby calf to turn and face the camera.

Sister Huyen Tran, LHC playing with the newborn about 8 hours old Holstein heifer calf.

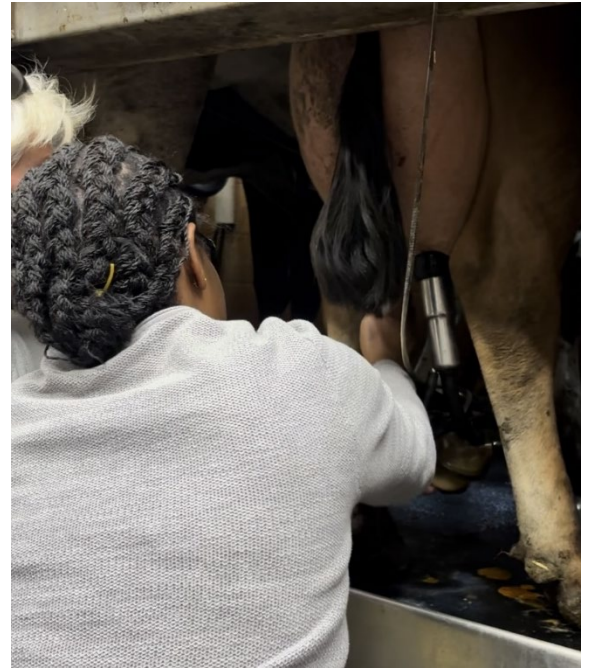

Huyen enjoying the beautiful Asian Pheasants.

The pheasants belong to David.

Rita Dorn looking at the pheasants and Pat Glinka leaving.

Close up picture of one of the colorful Asian Pheasants.

Huyen cleaning the udder and preparing for milking. Marianne assisting Huyen with milking. There are 300 milking cows and 350 head which includes calves, heifers, and pregnant cows on this farm. The heifers are two years old before they give birth to a calf and become milking cows.

Immaculata milking a cow.
David assisting Grace with milking

Pregnant cows in the birthing barn.

A Heifer licking salt.

Calves woke up from their afternoon nap to see who the visitors are.
Carleen's fingers are being smelled and licked
One calf chewed on Carleen's slacks and a couple others licked the Sisters fingers.

Immaculata in the pheasant barn, enjoying their activities of flying and their colors.