

Sister Marie Bernadette Alfieri, SSND - 60 Year Jubilee!

Sister Marie Bernadette Alfieri was born in Queens, NY, but entered the School Sisters of Notre Dame at the Motherhouse in Baltimore in 1957. She took first vows in 1959. Sister Bernadette has a BA in Elementary Education from Notre Dame of Maryland University (formally the College of Notre Dame) and a MA in Early Childhood Education from CW Post University. She worked as a primary teacher at Immaculate Conception, Malden, MA (1960-65); Holy Name of Jesus, Providence, RI (1965-71); Madonna School, Fort Lee, NJ (1971-72); and St. Mary School, East Islip, NY (1972-79); and as a Kindergarten Teacher (1979-89) and an Early Childhood Teacher (1989-2013) at St. Matthias, Queens, NY. She then did Community Service at the Generalate in Rome from 2013-17.

*Sister Bernadette at Celebration Jubilee
Mass with Bishop Nicholas DiMarzio*

