School Sisters of Notre Dame

have served in the United States since 1847. Originally founded in Bavaria by Blessed Theresa of Jesus Gerhardinger in 1833, the congregation has over 2,500 sisters in 30 countries and territories on five continents.

School Sisters of Notre Dame, as part of an interdependent human global community, are called to educate, advocate and act in collaboration with others for the dignity of life and the care of creation.

Sisters of the Atlantic-Midwest Province minister in education, pastoral,
and social services worldwide.

Transforming the world through education

“All the works of God proceed slowly and in pain; but then, their roots are the sturdier and their flowering the lovelier.”
-Blessed Mother Theresa of Jesus

Blessed Mother Theresa’s quote speaks of sacrifice and perseverance in faith, the theme of our donor recognition sculpture, the Flowering Tree of Life. Sacrificial giving that benefits others is a way for our benefactors to enter into the mission and charism of SSND, serving God’s people.

The Flowering Tree of Life is comprised of beautifully engraved leaves, blossoms and stones. Each element creates a lasting visual expression of appreciation. The brass plate is engraved with the name of major gift donors and/or the name of sisters, family members and friends - living and deceased - whom they wish to honor or remember.

Renowned New Jersey artist Sanford Werfel designed the unique sculpture in cherry wood. The brass leaves, carved dogwood blossoms and stones represent the trees that beautify our lawn at Villa Assumpta.

Know that our sisters pray daily for all our benefactors, living and deceased.
