

MAY

National Foster Care Month

SATURDAY 1
.....

International Workers Day

Today we celebrate and honor the labor movement and all workers who have fought for the dignity and rights of workers for decades. Learn more about labor trafficking through our Module here.

THURSDAY 6

National Nurses Day

Nurses are a critical part of identifying and treating victims of human trafficking who seek medical services. We give thanks and celebrate the important service of nurses today! Read more...

SUNDAY 9

Mothers Day

This Mother's Day we remember all mothers at risk of human trafficking, especially those who've been forced to flee their homes in search of safety and stability for themselves and their children.

FRIDAY 21
.....

World Day for Cultural Diversity

Human trafficking impacts all cultures and demographics of people around the world. Today we celebrate how diversity makes us stronger and re-commit to protecting all people from human trafficking. Learn more...

TUESDAY 25
.....

International Missing Children's Day

Not all missing children are victims of trafficking, but many are. Homeless and runaway youth are at greater risk of becoming victims of trafficking. Check out the International Centre for Missing and Exploited Children to learn more.

.....

Anniversary of the Indian Removal Act

The Indian Removal Act of 1830 began the displacement of U.S. Indian tribes that ultimately led to the Trail of Tears. Indigenous people are still at great risk for trafficking. Learn more through our Newsletter and Module.

Prayer Intention

We pray for the children and young adults in foster care as they are highly vulnerable to being trafficked.
