

JULY

FRIDAY 2

Anniversary of the 1964 Civil Rights Act

The Civil Rights Act outlawed discrimination based on race, color, religion, sex and national origin. Each of these demographics faces unique vulnerabilities to human trafficking due to persistent structural oppression.

SUNDAY 4

Independence Day

As we celebrate today, we remember Independence means “free from outside control,” and recommit to ensuring that ALL are free to live life with dignity.

Join us in sharing your vision of a world and economy without trafficking.

SATURDAY 17

World Day for International Justice

The aim of this day is to unite everyone who wants to support justice and promote victims rights. We are proud to be part of an international network of women religious (Talitha Kum) working to end human trafficking and promote the rights of survivors.
