WEEK2: BROTHER SUN, SISTER MOON AND STARS

The sky is the daily bread of the eyes.

PRAYER FOCUS: EMBRACING THE WONDER OF CREATION

“Some people, in order to discover God, read books.
But there exists
already a great book,
The very
appearance of created things.
Look above you!
Read it!
God, whom you
want to discover,
Never wrote that book with ink.
Instead He set
before your eyes
The things that
He made.
Can you ask for a louder voice than that?”

St Augustine, The City of God, Book XVI

The heavens burst forth with the glory of our Creator
The universe in all its glory proclaims God's handiwork.

(PS. 19: 1-2)

We direct our entire lives toward that oneness for which Jesus Christ was sent (YAS 4).

We deepen our consciousness of who we are in relationship with the Triune God, one another and God's amazing universe
(Love Gives Everything)

LAUDATO SI

Our insistence that each human being is an image of God should not overlook the fact that each creature has its own purpose. None is superfluous, The entire universe speaks of God's love, his boundless affection for us. Soil, water, mountains: everything is, as it were, a caress of God.

(Laudato Si 84)

REFLECTION

"When I know the world around me is both the hiding place and the revelation of God, I can no longer make a distinction between the natural and the supernatural, between the holy and the profane.

...Everything I know is indeed one universe, revolving around one coherent center."

(The Universal Christ, Richard Rohr)

"I want to tell you about love
There are approximately 1 trillion galaxies
I want to tell you about
In the Milky Way there are about 100 billion stars

I want to tell you
Love is the breath of the cosmos."

(love letter to the milky way, Drew Dellinger)

"HE WHO CAN NO LONGER PAUSE TO WONDER AND STAND RAPT IN AWE, IS AS GOOD AS DEAD; HIS EYES ARE CLOSED." -- ALBERT EINSTEIN

BROTHER SUN, SISTER MOON

MUSIC AND LYRICS BY
DONOVAN P. LEITCH

Brother Sun
and Sister Moon
I seldom see you
Seldom hear your tune
Preoccupied
With selfish misery
Brother Wind
and Sister Air
Open my eyes
To visions pure and fair
That I may see
The glory around me
I am God's creature
Of him I am part
I feel his love
Awakening my heart
Brother Sun
and Sister Moon
I now do see you
I can hear your tune
So much in love
With all that I survey
