

Sister Marie Elena McCormack, SSND – 80 Year Jubilee!

*“My daily prayer is,
‘Jesus help me.’”*

How did all this come about?

I was born in Boston, the younger of two girls who attended the Mission Grammar and High Schools.

Not long after my sister, Mary, entered the SSNDs, I too, felt drawn to be an SSND. My generous parents were supportive of my choice.

As a teacher and an administrator for 45 years, I met many interesting people!

My first mission was at St. Anselm in Brooklyn where some of the parents and students became life-long friends.

I thoroughly enjoyed teaching, and was loathe to leave the classroom, but it was time.

For many years, I did community service at Wilton.

I was among the pioneers to take up residence at Ozanam Hall, where I recently celebrated my 100th birthday.

My daily prayer is, “Jesus help me.”
