

Claiming the Fire Within Reflection Questions

1. What is it that burned so brightly in the lives of Mother Theresa and Mother Caroline, that inspired their actions and decisions? What is it that burns brightly in me that inspires my actions and decisions? How do I experience that fire within?
2. How do the words or actions of Mother Theresa or Mother Caroline resonate with me? Have I experienced the call to risk in faith, in my personal life or in my ministry?
3. How do I experience the call "to make one" in my personal life or ministry? How do I identify with the struggles of Mother Theresa and/or Mother Caroline?
4. What is the work of my life?